

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

DAY 1 – Tuesday 28th May 2019

Moment of Truth - The nature of catastrophes and how to prepare for them
Kelly McKinney, Disaster Expert, NYC, USA

Protecting Victoria from Cyber-Emergencies

David Cullen, Department of Premier and Cabinet (VIC)

National Priorities - EM issues for the next 10 years

Richard Thornton, Bushfire & Natural Hazards CRC

Human rights within the Assurance Framework

Inspector-General for Emergency Management

Choose your next disaster - Scenario 1

Major Pandemic: Department of Health and Human Services

Choose your next disaster - Scenario 2

Major solar coronal mass ejection-Worldwide power and communications black-out
Bureau of Meteorology

What it feels like to drown-VR as a training tool

Lifesaving Victoria

Tree Hazard Awareness Training

Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning

Victoria's Night Fire Bombing program

Wayne Rigg, Country Fire Authority

Latrobe Valley Intelligence Network-early notification from region-wide smart sensors

Lance King, Latrobe City Council & Cameron McKenna, Attentis

Mental Health - a lived experience

Matt Henry, Victoria Police, Beyond Blue ambassador

Research and Support developments

James Maskey, Beyond Blue

Mental Health, Safety and Wellbeing - the Road to Mental Readiness

David Savio, Metropolitan Fire Brigade

Emotional Preparedness - the story of one woman's passion for change

Carol Matthews, Victorian Local Hero 2019

Different perspectives on wellbeing

A panel of people 24-74yrs who contribute to emergency management in Victoria

Respite program for Police and emergency services

Patrick Cairns, The Police Treatment Centres, Harrogate, UK

ESF Chiefs' Panel:

Agency leaders discuss why people's wellbeing is front of mind

Victoria's State Chief Officers Panel:

State government leaders discuss the impact of drought and climate change on emergency management

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

DAY 2 – Wednesday 29th May 2019

Authentic Leadership

Phil Shepherd

Preparing migrants and refugees for emergencies

Tina Georgiev and Martha Martin, Hume City Council

Van Tastic-a new approach to community engagement in Recovery

Mat Deans & Sue Rondeau, Moyne Shire Council

Drawing out the Strengths within the Community

Sharna Whitehand, Corangamite Shire Council

Impacts of public incidents on responders

Panel - VicPol, AV, VicSES, Council of Churches, Red Cross, City of Melbourne.

The importance of remembering and commemorating disasters

Susan Pascoe AM

Tham Luan Cave Rescue - Thailand

Joe Buffone, Emergency Management Australia

Mark Tattersall, Department of Foreign Affairs & Trade

Climate Change-Latest Observations

Karl Braganza, Bureau of Meteorology

ESF Scholarship Panel Discussion

- Practical Fire Investigation Training - Geoff Ranzenhofer, Country Fire Authority
- Advances in community warning systems - Jacob Riley, Victoria SES
- Public Private partnerships in incident management - Luke Heagerty, CFA
- Forensic documentation advances - Linda Jones, Victoria Police

Presented by: